

Worksheet

English Year 4

Module 4: Celebrations

Section A

Instructions: Read each question carefully and fill in the blanks, choose the correct answer, or indicate whether the statement is true or false. (10 Marks)

Picture 1

1. Parades are a common feature of many celebrations. (True / False)
2. What is the purpose of using a monolingual dictionary?
 - a) To learn new words in different languages.
 - b) To understand the meaning of words in the same language.
 - c) To translate words from one language to another.
3. What is the significance of Independence Day?
 - a) It marks the day a country gained independence.
 - b) It celebrates a famous historical figure.
 - c) It honours a specific cultural tradition.
4. Parades usually involve people dressing up in costumes. (True / False)

Picture 2

5. What do people often do during celebrations?
 - a) sing and dance
 - b) play sports
 - c) sleep
6. Why do people celebrate Independence Day?
 - a) To commemorate an important historical event.
 - b) To honour a famous leader.
 - c) To exchange gifts.
7. When is Christmas celebrated?
 - a) January 1st
 - b) December 25th
 - c) February 14th
8. What is the significance of cultural attire during celebrations?
 - a) It represents the history and traditions of a specific culture.
 - b) It showcases the latest fashion trends.
 - c) It is worn for practical reasons.
9. What is the role of traditional music and dance in celebrations?
 - a) They serve as background noise.
 - b) They provide entertainment and evoke cultural pride.
 - c) They have no significance in celebrations.
10. When discussing the customs of a celebration, it is important to consider the values and beliefs associated with that culture. (True / False)

Section B

Answer all the questions below.

1. What is your favourite celebration or special occasion? Describe why you like it and what activities you usually do during that celebration.

2. Imagine you are attending a parade for a cultural celebration. Describe the costumes you would wear and explain why you chose those specific costumes. What elements of the celebration do your costumes represent?

3. Think about a celebration you have learned about in class or from your own research. Explain why you think it is important for people to learn about and celebrate different cultural traditions. How does learning about celebrations from different cultures promote understanding and respect?

Section C

Activity: Create Your Own Celebration

Instructions:

1. Think about a celebration or special occasion that you would like to create.
2. Write a brief description of your celebration, including its name, purpose, and key features.
3. Design an invitation card or poster for your celebration. Include the date, time, location, and any other important details.
4. Prepare a short presentation (1-2 minutes) to explain your celebration to the class. You can use props, visuals, or drawings to support your presentation.
5. Present your celebration to the class, sharing your description, invitation, and any additional information or ideas you have.

Answer Scheme
Worksheet
English Year 4
Module 4: Celebrations

Section A

1. True
2. b) To understand the meaning of words in the same language.
3. a) It marks the day a country gained independence.
4. True
5. a) Sing and dance
6. a) To commemorate an important historical event.
7. b) December 25th
8. a) It represents the history and traditions of a specific culture.
9. b) They provide entertainment and evoke cultural pride.
10. True

Section B

Sample Answers

1. My favourite celebration is Halloween. I like it because I get to dress up in spooky costumes and go trick-or-treating with my friends. We also carve pumpkins and decorate our house with scary decorations. (Or any suitable answers by students)
2. If I were attending a cultural celebration parade, I would wear a traditional Chinese costume called a qipao. It is a beautiful dress with vibrant colours and intricate designs. I would choose this costume because it represents Chinese culture and it's elegant. I would also wear a colourful mask and carry a dragon puppet to symbolise good luck and fortune. (Or any suitable answers by students)
3. Learning about different cultural celebrations is important because it helps us understand and appreciate the diversity of our world. When we learn about other people's traditions and celebrations, it promotes respect and tolerance. It teaches us that there are many ways to celebrate and express our culture. By celebrating together, we can build bridges between different communities and foster a sense of unity and acceptance. It also gives us an opportunity to learn about the history, values, and beliefs of different cultures, which enriches our own understanding of the world. (Or any suitable answers by students)

Section C

Any suitable answers by students.