3. Instruct the groups to prepare a presentation about their assigned daily routine topic.
4. Encourage students to include key vocabulary, phrases, and actions related to the daily routine in their presentations.
5. Each group is provided with resources such as flashcards, worksheets, or visuals to support their presentations if needed.
6. Give the groups sufficient time to plan, organise their content, and rehearse their presentations.
7. Once the presentations are ready, each group has an opportunity to present their daily routine topic to the class.
8. After all the groups have presented, facilitate a class discussion to review the key vocabulary, phrases, and grammar structures used in the presentations, and address any questions or clarifications.
