Sample Answer

1. I would describe my best friend as funny, kind, and intelligent. He always makes me laugh with his jokes and has a great sense of humour. He is also very caring and is always there to support me when I need it. Additionally, he is very smart and excels in his studies, which I admire. (Or any suitable answers)
2. I chose the whiteboard as the object to describe. Its purpose is to display information and help the teacher explain concepts to the class. It is important because it allows us to visually understand and remember what is being taught.

The whiteboard is useful because it can be easily erased and reused for different lessons, making it a versatile teaching tool. (Or any suitable answers)

3. I have got a pet dog named Max. He is a golden retriever with a beautiful golden coat and expressive brown eyes. Max is very friendly and playful. He loves to fetch balls and go for long walks in the park. Max is also very loyal and protective. Whenever I'm feeling down, he always manages to cheer me up with his wagging tail and affectionate nature. I am grateful to have Max as my furry companion. (Or any suitable answers)
